Examiner's Amendment and Reasons for Allowance

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. The application has been further amended as follows:

Claims 1-4, 6-12 and 18-24 have been cancelled.

Claim 5 has been amended as follows:

5. A method according to claim 1, ~~including the activity of,~~ for providing a user interface for use by a portable processing device for accessing and navigating patient record information, comprising the activities of:
receiving user identification information for use in authorizing user operation of said portable processing device;
initiating display of an image including a plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of individual patients;
acquiring data representing a patient record content index, said content index representative acquired data being dynamically derived, by processing information comprising an existing particular patient record, in response to a user command from said portable processing device to access said particular patient record;

Art Unit: 2174

initiating display of a patient record content index including a plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of items of patient record information image using said acquired data in response to user selection of a link to one of said plurality of individual patients;
initiating display of an image including a plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of lists of patients, and wherein said step of initiating display of an image including a plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of individual patients is performed in response to user selection one of said plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of lists of patients;
and
initiating display of an image including information comprising a portion of a patient record in response to user selection of a link to one of said plurality of items of patient record information.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art made of record fails to anticipate or make obvious the claimed invention. Specifically, the prior art fails to teach, in combination with the remaining elements:

the method of initiating display of an image including a plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of lists of patients, and wherein said step of initiating display of an image including a plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of individual patients is performed in response to user selection one of said plurality of links to a corresponding plurality of lists of patients as recited in claims 5 and 13.

Although Evans teaches a substantial amount of the claimed matters, Evans fails to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
